Website Criteria

Target Audience: People around your own age
Web Site Purpose: Give information about a topic of your choice

Your web site should consist of at least 4 pages:

Homepage:
Your homepage should introduce the web site and tell the viewer what you are going to show them. Here you should include:

- Title of the web site
- Your name
- Some text to introduce your web site to the viewer
- Some images related to the content.

At least 3 other pages:
The other pages should focus on specific information about your chosen topic. Each page should have different content. On each page you should include:

- Text to describe about your chosen topic
- Images about your chosen topic
- Each page must contain a heading
- Each page must contain hyperlinks to the other pages

Don’t forget to use the features of a good web site that we discussed:
